

Unwavering Commitment and Compassion

With an individualized approach, Schmidt Bresnahan Law Group, LLC shepherds clients through complex family law disputes to obtain superior results.

In the realm of family law, tensions and emotions can run high as people face immensely difficult challenges in their personal lives. Given the life-altering implications of a divorce or custody battle, retaining experienced and empathetic legal counsel becomes imperative. Attorney Heather Schmidt, founder of Schmidt Bresnahan Law Group, LLC, brings 20-plus years of experience to the table.

“I am frequently up against Pittsburgh’s top law firms, so I’ve learned the intricacies of family court,” she says. “I know what it takes to be there for clients to achieve the best outcome.”

Schmidt graduated cum laude with a bachelor’s degree in political science and international studies before embarking on a career at the District Attorney’s office, where she saw firsthand how law can change people’s lives. Striving to help people and make a lasting impression through personalized representation, she quickly found her niche in family law. Today, Schmidt Bresnahan Law Group provides comprehensive family law services, specializing in mid- to high-level divorces, child custody, spousal support, alimony, and marital agreements.

Committed to one-on-one interactions, Schmidt is a standout in the field. She personally handles all aspects of litigation and legal strategy and is by her client’s side throughout every step. As a trusted advisor, Bresnahan sees her role not only as legal counsel, but as a guide for clients through tumultuous times. “Divorce and custody battles are two of the hardest things someone can go through,” she says. “I guide them and minimize their pain so they can heal and feel whole again.”

Making a Difference

When it comes to child custody, Schmidt understands the fear parents experience while fighting for visitation rights and the well-being of their children. She respects the gravity of each client’s situation and thoroughly evaluates every case to provide straightforward advice from the outset.

“I am a straight shooter and set realistic expectations so clients know what to expect based on their unique circumstances,” she says. “There are no surprises.”

Schmidt’s comforting demeanor allows her clients to feel safe and have peace of mind knowing they are in excellent hands. “It is heartfelt to be contacted by families years later with success stories resulting from the cases I helped resolve,” she says. “It makes my job extremely rewarding.”
